READING

5 Read the texts and match people 1-3 with the most suitable events A-D. There is one extra event.

1 ■ Aisha spent time today thinking about her appearance because she's getting ready for a very important event. She's dressed comfortably in a long-sleeved blouse with a white jacket and a long skirt. Everything she needs is in a smart leather shoulder bag. She hopes she's wearing the right outfit because she wants to make a good impression. At the moment, she's reading about the company because she wants to appear knowledgeable and motivated, but she hopes they won't ask her any difficult questions.

1 Tyler is well-dressed today because he's at an important event. He's sitting in a group and all the men are wearing similar outfits: a dark suit with a white shirt and a bow tie. He can't wear trainers. He needs to wear black leather shoes with the suit. Everyone is dressed up because they're in the theatre reading out poetry and a lot of people are looking at them. Even the people watching have to dress smartly.

3

Imad is looking forward to today because he's meeting a group of friends for a great day out in the mountains. Nothing makes him happier than getting some fresh air. He's wearing a T-shirt and a hoodie with some good boots. His feet need to be comfortable all day from the morning to the evening. When he goes out, he always carries what he needs for the day in a backpack: some lunch and two bottles of water. He hopes it won't rain. It would be a great shame.

A Poetry evening

The poetry club is giving a short performance in the school auditorium next Friday 6 June. The students will dress smartly and those attending the event should wear formal clothes. No T-shirts or trainers, please! It will be a great evening for our students to show their talent!

B Volunteer training

This year's 'You Make a Difference!' training is for young people who want to learn about how to help older people in the community. You can also meet other volunteers, share experiences and learn new skills. Please wear clothes you don't mind getting dirty as we will be outside helping in the garden.

C Hike for health

This year's Hike for Health on Saturday 9th April. We are walking across the beautiful Dorset countryside. We start at 9 a.m. and finish at 6 p.m. Wear comfortable clothes and good boots for hiking. Don't forget to bring your lunch and enough water. Meet up with your friends and make some new ones!

D Job interview

Kamal's Computer World is looking for a new assistant. He or she doesn't need to be a technical expert but must be polite and well-dressed, and want to help customers. Experience is ideal although not essential. We are looking for someone who is keen, enjoys discussing technology and loves learning.

SPEAKING

6 In pairs, take it in turns to ask and answer the questions.

- 1 What clothes do you like wearing? Why?
- 2 Do you prefer going out with one or two friends or in a group? Why?
- 3 Tell me about something you like doing with your family.
- 4 What do you usually wear at special events?

WRITING

7 Read this email you received from a friend and the notes you have made. Reply to your friend using all the notes.

Hi Laith,

How are you getting on?
Well, I hope.

I'm feeling a bit down.
☹️ My school work isn't going so well this term and my friends don't seem to like me anymore.

I feel like doing something fun this weekend but I'm not sure what. I'd love to hang out with you and Jaber.

Are you free?
What do you reckon we could do?

All the best,
Muneer

Fantastic!

What a pity. ☹️ You need to do more fun things together.

That would be great!

On Saturday

Go for a walk in the mountains?

- 8 Let's focus on recovery and come back stronger.

ACTIVE PRONUNCIATION |
Noun and verb syllable stress

There are many two-syllable words in English which have the same noun and verb form. For nouns, we often stress the first syllable and for verbs, we often stress the second syllable, e.g.

- He's going to record the interview.
- My mum has an old music record.

Be careful! Some words, e.g. answer, have the same stress for both the noun and verb form.

Sometimes moving the stress can change the meaning of a word, e.g.

- object (n) = a thing
- object (v) = to disagree with an idea.

- 3 3.6 Listen to the words. Circle N for Noun or V for Verb depending on how the speaker pronounces each word.

- | | |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| 1 record N / V | 5 reject N / V |
| 2 upgrade N / V | 6 contest N / V |
| 3 insult N / V | 7 import N / V |
| 4 refund N / V | 8 suspect N / V |

- 4 3.7 Listen and repeat the two ways of stressing the same words.

- 5 3.8 Read the pairs of sentences aloud. Listen and check. Then practise saying the sentences with the correct syllable stress for the underlined words.

- 1 I never refuse an invitation.
The refuse collector takes our bins every Thursday.
- 2 The teacher was pleased with her students' conduct.
One day my sister would like to conduct an orchestra.
- 3 It's important to live in the present and not always plan for the future.
My group is going to present our work to the class.
- 4 It must be exciting to cross the desert in a car.
Don't worry, I'm not going to desert you.

3 Tick the correct verb forms 1–10 and correct the incorrect ones.

When I was at school I ¹would love loved/used to love sports. I ²used to play for the school netball and hockey teams, which ³was fun. However, our head teacher ⁴would believe that academic subjects were more important than sports, so she didn't spend much money on sports facilities. The PE teachers ⁵used to organise a sports day every year, but it ⁶wouldn't be very good. Luckily for me, though, when I was eleven, my family ⁷used to move to a new house, which was next door to the local tennis club. I ⁸would spend hours there in the summer playing with my friends. I wasn't very good, but I ⁹used to enter the club tournament every July and once I even ¹⁰would win the junior championship! I don't play tennis these days, but I still love sports.

SUMMER HOLIDAYS – WHAT NOT TO DO!

Traveller magazine recently collected some basic travel mistakes. Here we share them with you to help you prepare for your holiday.

When Adel decided to go camping in the desert it seemed like a great idea – until he realised that travellers to this area should remember to take a spray against insects and basic medical material with them – there are no shops or medical centres nearby. Sadly, after three days of bugs and an infected cut, Adel's holiday was finished.

When Randa booked a holiday in a seaside hotel near shops she didn't ask about the hotel's noisy outdoor restaurant, which she only discovered when she arrived there. Even things to block her ears didn't stop the noise, so she had to change hotel – an expensive mistake!

ACTIVE PRONUNCIATION | Linking words

English speakers run words together to create a continuous stream of words. This way of linking words together can sometimes be difficult to understand. We can use different ways to link the ending of one word and the beginning of the next. When a word ends with a consonant (e.g. /t/, /d/, /k/ or a consonant sound, e.g. take) and the next word starts with a vowel, there is no pause between the words, e.g.

- I did_it quickly.
- Can you look_at my work?
- Is_it a boy or_a girl?
- How much_are these_eggs?

- 4 4.8 Listen again to the phrases from Exercise 3 and practise saying them.

- 5 4.9 Look at some sentences. Underline the words you think can be linked. Listen and check. Practise saying the sentences.

- 1 It's about 18 miles away from my home.
- 2 We got a train earlier than we'd expected because it had been delayed.
- 3 Tareq's dad is fed up with all the driving he does at night at the moment.
- 4 I'm not a fan of motorbikes, but from all these magazines it looks as if Khaled is!
- 5 You keep on making comments about my new hairstyle - please stop it!

- 6 4.10 Listen to some more phrases where the words are linked. Write what you think the words are. The number of words in each phrase has been given to help you.

- 1 (3 words) catch up on
- 2 (3 words) _____
- 3 (3 words) _____
- 4 (3 words) _____
- 5 (4 words) _____

- 7 4.11 Listen to the phrases in context and check your answers to Exercise 6.

 - 4 I'm still _____ very tired at the end of the day.
 - 5 Sure, you might get more control _____ over your schedule _____, but there's no stability _____, no guarantees.

Dark and light /l/

The /l/ sound can be pronounced in two ways called 'light' and 'dark' /l/.

- We use the light /l/ before a vowel or diphthong, e.g. London, light, flag, unless, lovely.
- We use the dark /l/ as the final sound of a syllable, after a vowel or diphthong, e.g. full, able, will, April.

Some people confuse the /r/ and the /l/ sounds. When making the /r/ sound the tongue does not touch the roof of the mouth, whereas to make the /l/ sound it does.

- 4 5.11 Listen and check your answers to Exercise 3.

- 5 5.11 Listen again and repeat the sentences.

- 6 5.12 Listen and notice how the /l/ sound changes. Practise saying the pairs of words.

Write your letter. Use the beginning below.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

I would like to apply for the free place on the English course in the UK that I saw advertised on your website. ...

THE BEST SUMMER EVER?

As soon as the boat sailed, I knew I had made a mistake. It wasn't as if I'd never had a job before. Throughout my second year at university I had worked as a waitress at an Italian restaurant in town. ¹_____ As well as helping me financially, it was something I really enjoyed. I got on well with the rest of the staff and met lots of different people.

I also had a passion for travelling and I was really excited when my mother phoned me just before the end of summer term. 'I've found you a summer job on a cruise ship!' she said. 'It's only four weeks and you'll have finished before university starts again,' Wow! This was a real opportunity. ²_____ In my opinion it was going to be the best summer ever.

You've probably guessed by now. I hadn't considered the actual work side of this. When I arrived on board, I found out I was sharing a very small cabin with three other girls. They were kind enough, but they hardly had time to say hello before they had to rush off to start their shifts. ³_____ After all, I was experienced in restaurant work. At the door of the dining area, however, I hesitated. In front of me was an enormous space. It was at least ten times bigger than the Italian restaurant I'd worked in!

Someone important-looking, in a spotless uniform, came up to me.

'You're the new girl?' he asked. ⁴_____ 'As you're new, you will be responsible for the two tables the furthest from the kitchen.' He pointed to two tables set for six people each. 'There are three courses, and of course, the passengers like to be served at the same time. And they will be expecting hot food.'

My mind started to swim; twelve people, three courses, miles to walk back and forth to the kitchen. I pictured myself: a tray in each hand, piled with bowls of soup, trying to maintain my balance and reach my tables safely. ⁵_____ I turned to say, 'Thanks but I...,' when a loud bell sounded, and people started to flood into the restaurant. The ship had started moving, and I couldn't escape.
